

PROUD PEOPLE

- 1) Self-centered and self-absorbed
- 2) Think of what they can do for God
- 3) Believe that at their core, they are a good person
- 4) Blind to their true heart condition
- 5) Have no need to repent, sure everyone else does
- 6) Compare themselves to others and feel deserving of honor
- 7) Take credit for all their achievements
- 8) Sorry they got caught in sin, regret the consequences
- 9) Avoid accountability
- 10) When confessing sin they speak in vague generalities
- 11) Refuse or struggle to ask for forgiveness
- 12) Defensive when criticized or corrected
- 13) Concerned with being respectable
- 14) Concerned about what others think of them
- 15) Refuse or struggle to ask for help, self-sufficient attitude
- 16) Desire to be served and honored by others
- 17) Desire to be a success
- 18) Promote themselves and take all the credit
- 19) Feel confident in how much they know
- 20) Hold others at a distance, unapproachable
- 21) Protective of their time, rights, and reputation
- 22) Must be in control, "It's my way or the highway."
- 23) Make demands
- 24) Look down on others, air of superiority
- 25) Quick to blame others
- 26) Need to be right
- 27) Need to be seen and recognized
- 28) Need to be heard, frequently interrupt others
- 29) Focus on the failures of others
- 30) Wait to see if others will apologize
- 31) Despise or reject authority
- 32) Thrive off of competition to establish their superiority
- 33) Resist the opinions of others, they are never wrong
- 34) Jealous when others are used by God
- 35) Fight for the top spot, cannot be surpassed
- 36) Conceal their mistakes at all costs
- 37) Highly critical of others, fault finding heart posture
- 38) Harshly judge those who are caught in sin
- 39) Feel entitled, as if the world owes them something
- 40) Read this list and think of other people

HUMBLE PEOPLE

- 1) Not concerned with self at all
- 2) Know they have nothing within themselves to offer God
- 3) Recognize their deep sinfulness and need for a Savior
- 4) See their desperate need for God's mercy
- 5) Possess a continual heart attitude of repentance
- 6) Compare themselves to God and feel great need for mercy
- 7) Give glory to God for the gifts He has given them
- 8) Repent of sin and forsake it completely
- 9) Welcome their need for accountability and seek it out
- 10) Talk openly and specifically about their sin
- 11) Quick to admit wrongdoing and seek forgiveness of others
- 12) Open to criticism, receive correction with thankfulness
- 13) Concerned with being real
- 14) Find comfort in God who knows the truth
- 15) Accept their need for others, "I can't do it on my own."
- 16) Motivated to serve and honor others
- 17) Desire to be faithful to make others a success
- 18) Give credit where credit is due
- 19) Humbled by how much they have to learn
- 20) See the value in others, easily approachable
- 21) Self-denying and self-sacrificing
- 22) Surrender control, yield to the desires of others
- 23) Offer suggestions and advice with no strings attached
- 24) Regard others as more important than themselves
- 25) Accept personal responsibility for words and actions
- 26) Value relationship with others more than being right
- 27) Know that God sees in secret, unconcerned with who gets the credit
- 28) Quick to listen, slow to speak
- 29) Overwhelmed with a sense of their own spiritual need
- 30) First to apologize, seek immediate restoration with others
- 31) Submit to and pray for those in authority
- 32) Value teamwork and the capabilities of others
- 33) Appreciate different perspectives, listen with an open heart
- 34) Rejoice when others are used by God
- 35) Desire to see others surpass them and do greater works
- 36) Share their mistakes so that others can learn from them
- 37) Extend grace to others, especially when faults are exposed
- 38) Seek to restore others caught in sin in a spirit of gentleness
- 39) Feel grateful, recognize no one owes them anything
- 40) Read this list and think of themselves