

I. 12:44a - 01/07/21

A. This is the year of progress, of advancing forward and taking the hill of opposition. This year will require you to trust in the Lord with all your heart, soul, and strength as you continue to advance towards the promises that He has given you in His Word. This year will be a year of losses and victories as you press towards the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Do not be afraid or dismayed as I am with you wherever you go. I will not leave you and I will not forsake you and make no mistake about it this is the year that you will advance forward in areas of your life that have previously been impenetrable prior to this. The weapons of your warfare are not carnal, but they are mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds and they will prevail against all of your enemies. I tell you this day to be strong in the LORD and in the power of His might as the enemies that you will prevail over will continue to stand against you, they will not retreat of their own volitions, but they will have to be conquered as you advance and make progress. Inch by inch and foot by foot, as you continue to trust Me and believe in My Word the enemy will be overcome in your life and my Glory will shine brightly in the Earth. These people that I am calling in this hour cannot be timid nor be afraid, but they must be bold as a lion against the forces of darkness. We wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, powers, and spiritual hosts of wickedness in heavenly places. These times are not for the faint of heart but for those who are determined to see My kingdom come and My will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. The valiant will fall in battle, but the battle will not be for not. Continue forward and make progress for the Spirit of the Lord has risen upon you to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ into all the earth and then the end shall come. My people are the hope for the world and your commitment to My truth will be an example to all of the power of the goodness of God in the land of the living. My promises are true, and they must be pursued with passion and determination. Do not be afraid of the opposition, be encouraged by the support of My angelic hosts who stand with you in the day of battle. This warfare is not for the weak or for those who want to turn back in the day of adversity. Losses will come along the way, but the victory is sure to those who continue to advance and refuse to quit when difficulty arises. Do not be ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. My people will not be ashamed of me before men and I will not be ashamed of them before My Father who is in heaven. Stay the course and advance. Do not be dismayed or discouraged because of the seemingly victorious moments of the enemy in your life. Though weeping may endure for a moment, My joy will come in the morning. My love for you will never fade and My hope in you will never diminish. I have a word for your circumstances that must be grabbed hold of with fierce determination. My Word shall not return to me void but it will accomplish what I sent it to do. This is the year of progress against seemingly insurmountable odds so keep your eyes on Me and do not be overcome by the tactics of the enemy. Love conquers all and has already won the victory for you. Advance forward and do not retreat. The kingdom of God suffers violence and the violent take it by force. I have given you a kingdom that is not of this earth for you to use to advance my agenda. As you go, remember that the kingdom of heaven is at hand, it is available for you to use. My kingdom is a system, a method, a set of principles that when enacted release My power and My glory into the earth. I have made this accessible to you through the blood of My Son Jesus.

Continue to move forward and advance against oppression and adversity. Victory belongs to Me and this is the victory that overcomes the world, even your faith. So, believe in hope and release expectations of what I can do in your life through you. All things are possible to those who believe so be encouraged today that I see the challenges you are facing and know the feelings that you are dealing with and the questions that you have. Not all answers will come to you at this time as you will not be able to see what I am doing in your life at the moment. I have a plan for you, a plan to prosper you and to give you a future and a hope. Trust only in Me and do not put your faith in man for they will disappoint you. Many will rise and fall in this hour declaring their faithfulness to me, but they will not endure. He who endures to the end will be saved so stay the course and do not lose hope. I will be with you wherever you go and My faithfulness to you will not be denied. Make progress and do not be afraid of the process it takes to continue to walk by faith and not by sight. I am advancing My cause in the earth and those who know their God will be strong and do valiantly. The meek shall inherit the earth and the righteous shall not faint in the day of adversity. Be strong My children for the Word of the LORD to you is progress, keep moving forward in the face of opposition, and do not lose heart. I have not called you to back down neither do I take any pleasure in those who draw back. I am with you to the end so do not let this day be your end. My kingdom is available for you so do not let it go to waste. I have endued you with power from on High through the Holy Spirit and this battle will not be won by power nor by might but by My Spirit says the LORD. Lift your heads up and look unto Me, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. What I started; I will complete until the day of Christ Jesus. Amen
